Pictured are the the Year 5 children celebrating the “Fete des Rois” as part of their French lesson. Traditionally celebrated by all of France on the 6th, the youngest in the family goes under the table to decide who gets each piece of cake! Whoever finds the “feve” in their piece gets to wear the crown and be king or queen for the day! The children enjoyed celebrating!

Thank you, for all your continued support, Mr Roscoe, Mrs. Christy, Mrs. Osmond and all at St Thomas the Martyr CE. Please contact school via the app, email or phone Any concerns or you need support from school or from the foodbank—Mon to Thurs 8.45am TO 11.15am
